

Hog on the Hill Information Sheet

11-12 May 2024

100 Cadz ST.

The Back Lot Chester, South Carolina

It's time to plan for the 15th annual Hog on the Hill BBQ Cook Off Event happening 11th 12th May, 2024. With cash awards of over $2,500, this event is sure to attract teams from across North and South Carolina.

To register to cook please fill out the form at www.raisingchester.com

Entry fee is $150 which includes the meat for Saturday's sanctioned event, sample cups, 110v 15a electrical service and one water bib connection. Utility set up will be around 2:00pm. Check in starts on Friday please call to arrange setup if it will be before 12 noon. There will be a cook team meeting Friday at 4:30pm. Complimentary breakfast for the cook teams is provided and will be served around 7:30 am Saturday Morning. Turn-in for the sanctioned event is 10:00 am Saturday. Entrants must be ready to exchange 2oz samples of BBQ for one ticket. The public will purchase tickets at the information booth. Admissibility of Contest submissions will be at the discretion of the SCBA. The BBQ winners will be announced at 2pm Saturday - Prize Money 1st $1,000 2nd $500 and 3rd $250.

Back by popular demand will be the "Anything But" competition Friday night allowing the cook teams to show off their culinary skills. So plan to WOW the crowd with your culinary delight. This is an optional event for the cook teams. "Anything But" is defined by Hog on the Hill BBQ Event to include any food other than Pork shoulder and/or Boston Butts that will be the competition to be held on Saturday. "Anything But" PORK SHOULDER, BOSTON BUTTS, all other parts of the pig OK. Sea food, turkey, wild game, alligator, frog legs, ostrich, Key lime pie or French fries etc.-just "Anything But" is allowed in the contest. Just let your imagination go wild. Recipes may be marinated or injected, and this may be done before arrival. Recipe may be baked, broiled, barbecued, grilled, fried, etc. Recipe may include garnish. Garnish is anything that is not essential to the taste. Special platters or turn in boxes are also allowed and will count towards your presentation score. All cooking and preparation, with the exception of marinating, will be done on the premise. All cooking to be done on generally accepted cookers and/or grills normally associated with barbecue cook-off.

Entrants must be competing in the Hog on the Hill BBQ Cook Off contest. The "Anything But" entry must be the work of an individual team. Turn in for the "Anything But" is 7:00pm Friday night. Entrants must prepare a minimum of 100 2oz samples to be given out by ticket. The CDDA will provide up to 100 2oz solo cups for presentation, If your entry requires something else to be served please plan to provide the needed container. All 100 samples should be representative of the items submitted to the judges. Substitutions are strictly forbidden. Representatives of the CDDA will Monitor to ensure all 100 samples are similar. Teams found offering something different to the public from what they offer to the Judge will be disqualified from the Anything Butt Competition. Judging will be on Friday night using the "Blind Judge" technique. The entry (8 samples for the judges) will be submitted in a numbered container provided by contest organizer. A 9" x 9" standard box will be offered. But is not required for "Anything Butt" A judging team of at least 5 judges will judge entries. The score will be based on "Taster's Choice". The entry with the best score will be designated as the winner. SCBA will follow their normal practice to break any tie.

The "Anything But" winner will be announced at 2pm Saturday- Prize Money 1st $500 2nd $250 and 3rd $100.

To register to cook please fill out the form at www.raisingchester.com

Other activities will include Kid's area, Music and other attractions.

POC: Jamey Wooten CDDAinfo@yahoo.com or leave a message at (803) 385-1528

A Chester Downtown Development Association Event

